
GEN. LOGAN'S DAUGHTER SUES HUSBAND; FAINTS FACING HIM IN COURT

Mrs. William F. Tucker, daughter of General John A. Logan, and her husband, whom she sues for separate maintenance.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—Charging gross neglect, cruelty and desertion, Mrs. William F. Tucker, the daughter of General John A. Logan, has brought a suit for separate maintenance against her husband, Colonel Tucker.

At the same time the retiring bolt of the strap, provided ever by General Tucker, reached its conclusion as to whether Colonel Tucker should be retained on pay on account of his alleged disability.

While the defense of the board is not known, it is believed that the Colonel was and was released on three-quarters pay.

Mrs. Tucker herself took the stand against her husband. At one point in the testimony she fainted. She told about his abusive treatment and declared that he had at one time threatened her life.

Colonel Tucker made a scene after his suit had been filed against him.

No Mention of Nurse.
In the petition for separate maintenance no mention is made of Mrs. Myrtle Thayer, Tucker's companion and nurse.

Actually residents of 414 Michigan at a husband, Mrs. Tucker declares in her petition, and this part of her bill is believed to be identical with her testimony before the retiring board, the defendant claimed the separate use of Michigan Avenue, and from then on up to the time she deserted her husband, was guilty of habitual drunkenness.

When the Colonel returned from the Philippines in 1907 Mrs. Tucker and Captain Tucker did all that could be done to persuade him to spend his days, but without success. Mrs. Tucker declared that the defendant's behavior was unbecomingly cruel and that she was forced to leave him.

Son Testifies for Mother.
When the Colonel returned from the Philippines in 1907 Mrs. Tucker and Captain Tucker did all that could be done to persuade him to spend his days, but without success.

To Have a Clear, Velvety Complexion
By MADAME D'EMILIE

(From Chicago Herald-Herald)
Madame D'Emilie, one of Paris' most famous beauties, just landed from Chicago, gives us a very valuable idea on skin treatment for the complexion.

"Yes, I have just come from beautiful Japan, and I must say the Japanese women have many little formulas and ideas which American women should know."

"What do they use to make their skin so soft and velvety?"
"Any American woman can use the same treatment if she desires. Discover a small cream, the 'Velvety Complexion' cream, which is made of the most delicate skin. Make the solution your own."

"Why, yes, of course I use it. Just see how beautifully soft my skin is. My face is not a bit red. I have never used any other cream, and those other creams will be missing from your face."

THE SPIRITS OF REPUBLICANS, YES, EVILS

By ALFRED HENRY LEWIS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—This has been one of my hit or miss affairs for two days. Mr. Flood is in town. Mr. Flood objects to the Government's internal revenue in the Philippines. He says they serve their purpose in Japan in Manila. All in the Philippines is greatest power. The Japanese on footstep there, are seeking some in no wise are they running in.

There are 22,000 merchants in the islands. Of these the American and the English number 501. In Manila, the hub of all earthly Philippine traffic, the Japanese merchants—numbering only 27, who are in the islands in a disorganized way, are arrayed a phalanx of Chinese commercial interests, whose 26,000 retail shops alone 2,600. Among all the islands there are not less than 200,000 Japanese.

These figures are upon the word of Mr. Flood, who does not believe in the yellow peril. What he does believe in is the removal of our tariff against sugar from the Philippines, which he believes the way to ruin is lying before the way to ruin. The Philippines furnish 1 per cent of our sugar. Mr. Flood explains the removal of the tariff would mean the loss of 100,000 jobs, while it might be to open into the vulgar shambles of the islands, "the melting of the oriental pot."

Republicans Split.
By the way, there is a big fight going on between the Republicans on the ways and means of Mr. Flood's plan. Mr. Flood, the gentleman agent of the United States, is in the Philippines. The forces are arrayed against the United States. Mr. Flood is in the Philippines. The forces are arrayed against the United States.

TO-DAY'S STOCK MARKETS AND LATEST FINANCIAL NEWS

By THOMAS C. SHOTWELL.
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Bear traders in Wall street again had E. H. Harriman seriously ill to day. As a result, stocks declined an average of a point in the early trading, under the leadership of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific. Residing was weak because of apprehension over the the common stock declining five-eighths of a point and the preferred one point.

Owing to the unfavorable report upon the earnings of the first quarter, the common yesterday the preferred and common stocks were down one-eighth and a half point, lower. Senior preferred was down half point. Anasaginated five-eighths and common stock were down one point. Crisco and Atchafalpa were strong features of the market. The latter advanced half a point. The wheat market was quiet and selling.

There was a trade higher because of short covering. In the specialty department American Cotton Oil was the strongest. It was up one point. The American People's Gas was a fraction lower. Contra Leather a trade higher. American Life and American Life Insurance and Texas & Texas advanced a point lower.

The I. & O. issued its traffic statement for January, in which it showed gross earnings increased $396,499. The stock of the company was a trifle lower with the balance of the market.

Missouri, Kansas and Texas issues were heavy in the foreign market as the result of selling by the continent.

EMMA EAMES AND BARITONE IN ROMANCE?

Personal interest attaches to the appearance in this city next Saturday afternoon of Emma Riggs, the famous opera singer, and Emilio de Gorgona, the great Italian tenor and former member of the Metropolitan forces in New York.

Is there romance behind it?

It became known today that the two singers are living apart from each other. Emma, the soprano, the former wife of Julius Riggs, the sculptor, she has left grand opera forever, she says, and has planned an extended concert tour with the baritone.

The wife of de Gorgona would not deny that she contemplates divorce.

When seen by an American reporter at her home in New York today. Mme. de Gorgozza said: "I am very ill; in fact, too ill to discuss the matter. Anyway, I don't see how it interests the public."

Mme. Gorgozza then thought the matter over carefully as though considering the advisability of making any statement. Then, after a deep sigh, she said: "No, I will not make any statement."

Mr. Gorgozza, who is the singer, admitted that he Gorgozza and his wife had separated. In speaking of a divorce, Mr. Gorgozza said:

"I know nothing about that. I don't know whether she would be willing to grant him one. They have not lived together for some time."

Mme. Eames only a few nights ago sang her farewell at the Metropolitan Opera House. The baritone and soprano roles in "Pique" were filled by

REFUSE TO DEBATE WITH SUPRACIST

There will be no debate between the Boston Suffragettes and the Anti-Suffragettes at the meeting which will take place at the Hotel Marlborough-Blenheim on Monday night. The note to their opponents saying that it is not their "custom" to engage in public debates was sent by Mrs. Anne H. Shaw, a Boston suffrage leader, wanted to debate with Charles K. Saunders of any other member of the Anti-Suffragist League. Further extension of suffrage to women in England had been refused by Parliament last night, and this was the challenge to debate. The following day, the suffragists left their annual convention at the Massachusetts Institute of Women at the State House.
